

SAFETY MOMENT

It is always better to slow down when driving in heavy rains.

- Poor visibility hampers driving performance
- Oil and dirt can make road very slippery
- One should Slow-down as far as possible
- Keep lot of distance between two cars
- Do not make sudden moves with steering, accelerator or brakes

